

District Youth Protection Officer

JOB DESCRIPTION

Your role as District Youth Protection Officer is to disseminate the RI youth protection policy and ensure training within the District's Youth Programs. In particular you must be part of the District's RO Crisis Management team ensuring that investigations and resolution of complaints of harassment and abuse against youth are Conducted as required in the Youth Protection Policy.

RESPONSIBILITIES
Act on Helpdesk tickets from the Clubs in your District on youth issues
Support clubs in finding solutions to risk management challenges focusing data compliance and access to data,
Serve as the District Youth Protection Officer
Join in on meetings with the other Oceania District Insurance Officers if Claims relating to youth are being reviewed
Act as a presenter on youth protection training but not as a District Trainer
Keep the governor informed on risk management relating to youth
Stay up-to-date on Rotary initiatives on youth protection.
Ensure Clubs have the right paperwork to support their risk management