Duty of Disclosure

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before entering into a contract of insurance with Chubb, each prospective insured has a duty to disclose to Chubb information that is material to Chubb’s decision whether to accept the insurance and, if so, on what terms. This includes material information about the insured, any other people and all property and risks insured under the policy. Information may be material whether or not a specific question is asked.

There is the same duty to disclose material information to Chubb before renewal, extension, variation or reinstatement of a contract of insurance with Chubb. You should also provide all material information when You make a claim or if circumstances change during the term of the contract of insurance.

It is important that each prospective insured understands all information provided in support of the application for insurance and that it is correct, as each prospective insured will be bound by the answers and by the information they have provided.

The duty of disclosure continues after the application for insurance has been completed up until the time the contract of insurance is entered into.

Consequences of Non-Disclosure

If an insured fails to comply with their duty of disclosure, Chubb may be entitled, without prejudice to its other rights, to reduce its liability under the contract in respect of a claim or refuse to pay the entire claim. Chubb may also have the right to avoid the contract from its beginning. This means the contract will be treated as if it never existed and no claims will be payable.

5.15 Statutory Requirements

The expenses of all such recovery proceedings shall be apportioned in the ratio of respective recoveries. If there is no such recovery in proceedings conducted solely by Chubb, it shall bear the expenses thereof.

Where the Insured has agreed with another person or company, who would otherwise be liable to compensate the Insured for or contribute towards any loss or damage which is covered by the Policy, that the Insured will not seek to recover such loss or damage or contribution from that person, Chubb will not cover the Insured, to the extent permitted by law, for such loss or damage or contribution, unless the agreement is specified in the Schedule.

In the event any such recovery is subsequently received by the Foreign Entity in respect of which a payment or settlement is or has been made by Chubb to the First Named Insured in relation to the Foreign Entity Loss, the First Named Insured shall immediately pay to Chubb a sum equivalent to such payment or settlement.
